QUESTIONS IN SURGERY

General Surgery (3rd year)
3. Wounds: definition, local symptoms and classification. Wound healing process: definition, phases, their clinical and morphological characteristics.
13. Syndrome of acute limb ischemia: definition, classification, the concept of thrombosis and embolism, symptoms and signs, diagnosis and treatment.

Surgery nr.1 (4th year)
17. Particularities of acute appendicitis in children, pregnant and elderly patients, and depending on the localization of appendix.
21. Rare forms of hernias strangulation: morphological and clinical characteristics, features of surgical treatment.
40. Intestinal obstruction: definition, etiopathogenesis, pathophysiological disturbances. Classification of intestinal obstruction,

49. Abdominal trauma: general concepts, classification, clinical symptoms, diagnosis depending on the patient's hemodynamic status.

Surgery nr.2 (5th year)

55. Surgical pathology of thyroid gland: classification, physical and instrumental methods of examination.

63. Congenital heart disease: classification (patent ductus arteriosus, septal defects, Fallot's tetralogy), pathophysiology, symptoms, diagnosis, treatment, complications.

78. Differential diagnosis of posthepatic (mechanical) jaundice depending on the cause and level of obstruction. Differential diagnosis of mechanical jaundice with parenchymal and hemolytic jaundice.
89. Enterocutaneous fistulas: etiology, classification, clinical findings, management.
92. Endoscopic and minimally invasive surgery: definition, modern possibilities.
94. False acute abdomen: general concepts, causes, clinical presentation, diagnosis, curative tactics.

Pediatric Surgery (6th year)