

University of Groningen Talent Grant:

Eric Bleumink Fund

University of Groningen offers Talent Grant for Developing Countries through the Eric Bleumink funds. Grants are available for pursuing master programme, master (MSc/MA/LL.M.) and PhD programme at University of Groningen.

The grant is awarded for a 1 year or 2 years Master's degree programme.

The grant covers tuition fee, costs of international travel, subsistence, books, and health insurance. Please note that a considerable number of students apply for this scholarship each year, whereas the University can issue only a limited number of grants.

To be nominated the student needs to be (conditionally) admitted to one of the Master's programmes. The application deadline is January 15th, 2014.

Eligible candidates:

Criteria for approval are: (a) academic excellence, shown by academic performance and may be confirmed by letters of recommendation from university professors; (b) contribution of candidate's education in terms of strengthening the scientific capacity in the candidate's home country; (c) perspectives to a long-term linkage between the home institution and the University of Groningen.
